

FLOAT PLAN

OSPREY YACHT CLUB, INC

RESPONSIBILITY - The boat operator/owner has the responsibility to safeguard his/her boat, crew and passengers. That responsibility Includes the completion of the FLOAT PLAN for all overnight and extended cruises. Filing a FLOAT PLAN will make It is easier to locate you in case you need to be notified of an emergency message.

FILING THE FLOAT PLAN -

- 1) It is recommended that a copy of this FLOAT PLAN be given to the Albemarle Plantation Marina Office prior to departure.
- 2) A second copy of this FLOAT PLAN should also be placed in the white box attached to the Dockmaster's shack near the sign-out board so that an OYC member could access the information readily in case of an emergency.
- 3) For extended cruises it is also recommended that a copy of the FLOAT PLAN be given to a another reliable party (neighbor or friend) who can notify the US. Coast Guard should you not return as scheduled.

NOTE: It is not necessary to sign out on the Daily Sign-out Board if you submit this FLOAT PLAN. The Daily Sign-out Board is used to notify the OYC and the Albemarle Plantation Marina of a day trip. You notify the OYC and the Marina of overnight and extended cruises with this FLOAT PLAN.

Remove this page from the OYC FLOAT PLAN and take it with you for reference.
